

Billy Wright hails from Orlando, FL

2000 - started his professional career as a musician, songwriter and performer for live and studio work.

2011 - started his solo career, and has released two albums to date: Sunrise (2011) Right Now (2016)

2019 - officially launched his music company Fire Hour Music Group which manages studio production, songwriting, music licensing, and live production performances

Billy has done radio and magazine interviews providing insight on the music industry as well as talking about the teenage mutant ninja turtles.

After mentoring with sync licensing company, Billy is writing, producing and recording songs and music for ads, tv, film and other markets in which music is needed, along need tunes to be released publicly.